

A hand holding a scale of justice over a wooden table. The scale is positioned in the upper right quadrant, with the hand visible from the right side. The background is a blurred wooden surface, possibly a table or desk, with a warm, brownish tone. The text is overlaid on this background.

Time to elect a new Bargaining Committee member

Nominations open NOW, just email steering@geouaw.org

The bargaining committee will consist of the four elected bargaining members, alternate members, and the GEO staff. The bargaining committee members will elect its chief and co-chief negotiators. All members of the bargaining committee are to serve throughout the duration of a contract negotiation and will not need to be re-elected in the event that contract negotiations is extended beyond a year. Membership will have ultimate oversight over the bargaining committee and the committee answers to and is in service to the membership. The bargaining committee's responsibility is to assess the needs of the membership prior to negotiations, and made transparent regularly via the GEO website.